

Dear Gauntlet "99er Club" T-shirt recipient,

Thank you for playing our game Gauntlet Legends. We love the game around here and it's glad to know that players like it too!

It takes dedication (and a lot of quarters!) to max out your character in Gauntlet Legends, and for that you have our appreciation.

Your "99er Club" shirt is a design done by the team for their own use. While the shirt does not say "99er Club," you can be satisfied knowing that the only other people to have this t-shirt (besides players with 99-level maxed out characters) are the members of the team that created Gauntlet Legends!

Because of the contest rules, players are only allowed to receive one free "99er Club" t-shirt each. All entries for duplicate names or similar names/addresses will not be honored. This is because we have a very limited supply of Gauntlet shirts.

Thanks for your understanding, and keep enjoying Atari Games!
